

Functions as product and quality champion: oversees production and quality systems adherence, procedures, and tools to assure product and process compliance. The candidate will apply his/her extensive knowledge of quality, through process of operation, customer service, customer claims, internal-external audits, and continuous improvement.

Qualifications:

- English proficiency.
- Engineering degree (Industrial, Chemical, Petroleum, Mechanical).
- 1 to 5 years experience (manufacturing, quality or related field).
- SAP knowledge/proficiency desirable
- Well-versed in global energy landscape

Essential Functions:

1. Manage, monitor and improve AUGÉ's quality systems.
2. Maintain departmental quality documentation and records.
3. Drive quality improvements at the manufacturing site.
4. Review NCRs and create root cause analysis.
5. Develop, modify and/or review operational procedures.
6. Manage technical and regulatory compliance efforts.
7. Supervise critical processes and process stabilization.
8. Coordinate the internal and external quality expectations.
9. Ensure compliance to ISO, ASTM, and API standards.
10. Lead continuous improvement efforts and lean six sigma projects.
11. Communicate effectively and successfully with departments, suppliers and customers.

Professional and Personality Traits:

- Accountable | Persistent | Diligent | Proactive | Energetic
- Highly Analytical | Highly Organized | Critical Thinking
- Problem Solving | Business Etiquette

Compensation Package:

- Competitive salary
- Growth opportunities
- Savings plan
- International travel
- Legal and social benefits

Please consider:

- Start date: May-June 2022
- Resume should be in English.
- Interviews will be conducted in English.
- Salary is commensurate with experience ($15,000 - $45,000 mxn)